SCHOLARSHIPS

1. Navy Officers' Spouse Club (NOSC)
Scholarships: Deadline 15 March

NOSC has two scholarship opportunities available for either seniors graduating from a greater San Diego Area high school during the year of application or spouses of an Active Duty, retired, medically retired, or deceased US Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard who has served in a San Diego area command at some time; or Reservist activated for at least nine months. For more details: www.noscsandiego.com

2. Career-minded officers interested in developing language skills and regional cultural knowledge are encouraged to apply for the FY-18 Olmsted Scholar Program. The Olmsted Program is a unique scholarship opportunity offering two years of graduate study using a foreign language while providing overseas cultural and travel opportunities, often leading to a graduate degree at a foreign university. All eligible and interested officers should visit the Olmsted Foundation website at www.olmstedfoundation.org for details. Specific information on the Navy's application procedures can be found on the Navy College Office website at <http://www.navycollege.navy.mil/olmsted.html> and additional information can also be found in NAVADMIN 034/16. Deadline: 26 Aug.
